SECTIONS.

Any member, or group of members, is privileged to form a Section for the pursuit of any study or intellectual occupation, and to apply to the Rules Committee for the assignment of the East Room on a stated evening not incompatible with prior arrangements.

Admission to existing Sections is within their discretion, and usually upon formal proposal and election.

The use of the East Room by the ladies of the Society during the afternoon would be readily granted.

LANGUAGES.

Adams, Frederick A.

Johnson, Eric H.

Brewer, William A., jr.

Kennedy, David A.

Billqvist, C. Edward

Vermilye, Thomas E., jr.

This Section has no formal organization. Its meetings are held on alternate Friday evenings. Beginning with the study of Chaucer, it has, since New Year's, added the study of German.

This Section has no permanent chairman, but members preside at the meetings in alphabetical order. It held its first meeting April 21, 1880. Subjects for discussion are proposed by every member at each meeting, and one selected by a majority vote for use at the following meeting. Debate is opened by the proposer of the question selected, and other members follow, voluntarily usually. If no one takes the floor, the Chairman calls upon some member to express his views upon the subject before the meeting. Speakers are limited to ten minutes each.

Meetings were held and questions discussed as follows :

1880.

- May 15. "How far ought the public to extend education in the public schools?"
- May 29. "Should the right of suffrage be curtailed in this country?"
- Sept. 25. "Should the principle involved in what is called the 'Monroe Doctrine' be maintained by the American people?"
- Oct. 16. "Co-operation as a means of elevating the workingman, and of abolishing strikes and trades-unions."
- Oct. 30. { "Would a tariff for revenue only, or a protec-

The Committee recommends to the Society that an appropriation of money, to the amount of $250, be made for the purchase of a limited number of books of reference, etc., which are indispensable as a basis for every well-furnished library.

It is earnestly to be hoped that all the members of the Society will still continue to aid in the collection of books and money.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES WILEY,
DAVID A. KENNEDY,
S. F. JAYNE, Curator.

ORANGE, December 4, 1880.

S. F. JAYNE, Curator:

On behalf of the Rooms Committee, I beg to state that, during the past year, the Society has been presented with an engraving of the late President Lincoln, which has been framed and placed on the wall in the East Room. Three paintings have been placed in the West Room, temporarily, and are open for purchase by the Society at any time, if required.

The Committee would esteem very highly any contributions of engravings of useful maps for our walls, in both the East and West Rooms, and would favor a moderate appropriation from the treasury to assist in the desired work whenever it may be found convenient and prudent to do so.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERETT FRAZAR, Chairman.

Though the Reading-Room was opened on May 1, 1880, it hardly began to be stocked with periodicals or frequented till a month later. The record of visitors, as kept by the attendant, Mrs. Shrimpton, is as follows:

June, 1880,	.	.	68	October,	.	.	107
July, .	.	.	60	November,	.	.	72
August, .	.	.	14	December,	.	.	116
September,	.	.	56

The above numbers represent the two sexes in about equal proportions.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COUNTING.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

ORANGE, December 4, 1880.

To the President and Members of the New England Society :

The Committee of Public Welfare do not find much respecting which it devolves especially upon them to report at this time. Almost all the doings of the Society have, indeed, a reference to what may fairly be considered the public welfare; but most of these measures are naturally inaugurated and put in operation directly by the Society itself, so that it is not within the province of the Committee to report upon them.

By vote of the Society, the question of a water-supply for the Oranges—whether and how it could be obtained—was referred to this Committee. A report was made to the Society, and is on file, shedding some light upon this question, giving information as to what has been done in the past, and indicating two possibly sufficient and available sources of supply. The suggestions of the Committee were substantially adopted by the Society, which appointed a special committee for the further investigation of and attention to this matter.

Even if the New England Society should not be able to have any part in the actual provision of a good water-supply for this region, it will have accomplished an excellent work if it has done anything towards exciting interest in so important a matter.

Respectfully submitted,

LOWELL MASON, Chairman.

CONSTITUTION.

I.

THIS Society shall be known as THE NEW ENGLAND SOCIETY OF ORANGE. Its objects shall be to commemorate and foster the virtues of the Fathers of New England, and to cultivate social relations among its members.

II.

Any person of full age, being a native, or the son of a native, of any of the New England States, and any other person who may sympathize with the objects of this Society, may become a member, on being elected according to the Constitution and By-Laws thereof, and subscribing the Constitution thereof, and paying the sum of five dollars to the Treasurer.

III.

The property and concerns of said Society shall be managed and directed by a Board of Officers, members of said Society, consisting of a President, two Vice-Presidents, six Counsellors, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, to be elected and appointed annually, at such time and place, within the city of Orange, as shall be provided for by the By-Laws of said Association; and to hold office until their successors are duly elected. The Board shall have power to fill its own vacancies.

IV.

Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed at the Annual Meeting, but shall be acted upon only after the lapse of three months, and shall require for their adoption a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting called for that purpose, or at the next Annual Meeting.

BY-LAWS.

MEMBERSHIP.

I.

ANY person eligible to become a member, whose name has been presented by the Committee on Membership, may be elected by ballot at any meeting of the Society, provided there are not more than five (5) dissenting votes, and provided further that the number of dissenting votes shall not exceed one-fifth of the number of members present. If elected, such person shall be admitted a member of the Society, on complying with the conditions prescribed in the second article of the Constitution, and shall pay annually thereafter the sum of five dollars. But any such person may become a Life Member upon payment of the sum of fifty dollars at one payment.

II.

Honorary members may be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Society, in the manner prescribed in the first paragraph of the preceding section.

BOARD OF OFFICERS.

III.

The Board of Officers may, by the concurring votes of two-thirds of all its members, given viva voce, and entered on the Minutes, suspend any member from enjoying the privileges of the Society who may be guilty of gross misbehavior or scandalous or dishonest conduct. Such suspension shall continue until revoked by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board of Officers, or until the suspended member is restored to the Society by the votes of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting of the Society.

IV.

The Board of Officers elect shall meet within ten days after the monthly meeting in December, for the appointment of committees, of the Corresponding Secretary and the Curator, for the year ensuing, and shall meet at such times after the first of January as the interests of the Society may require.

V.

The President, or, if he is absent from the city, either of the Vice-Presidents, or, if these three officers are absent therefrom, any two Counsellors, may call a special meeting of the Board of Officers.

VI.

A majority of the Board of Officers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

VII.

The Board of Officers may appropriate a portion of the annual income of the Society, not exceeding one-tenth, to the relief of indigent or unfortunate persons of New England origin. All other appropriations shall be made under the general directions of the Society.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

VIII.

A Monthly Meeting of the Society shall be held at the Society's rooms on the first Saturday in every month except July, August, and September, and be called to order at 8 P.M. Notice of such meeting shall previously be given in the nearest issue of the Orange papers.

IX.

The Annual Meeting shall be held at the Society's rooms on the first Saturday in December of each year, or at such other time and place as the Board of Officers may direct, giving one week's notice in the Orange papers, and be called to order at 8 P.M.

X.

The President, or, if he is absent from the city, one of the Vice-Presidents, shall, on the written request of any ten members of the Society, call a special meeting thereof, and give due notice of the time of such meeting on the Bulletin Board of the Society and by advertisement in the Orange papers. The purpose of such meeting shall be expressly stated in such notice and advertisement.

XI.

Twenty-one members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but all appropriations of money shall first receive the sanction of the Board of Officers.

PRESIDING OFFICER.

XII.

The President, or, if he is absent, the First Vice-President, or, if they are both absent, the Second Vice-President, or, if these three officers are absent, a Chairman selected by the meeting, shall preside at the meetings of the Society and of the Board of Officers.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

XIII.

The order of business at the Society's meetings shall be: (1) the reading of the minutes; (2) report of the Committee on Membership, and election of new members; (3) reports of other committees; (4) special business; (5) general business.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

XIV.

The election of officers shall be conducted at the Annual Meeting on the Hare system of voting, being the first business after the reading of the minutes. The Recording Secretary shall furnish each member with five blank forms for nominations (ballots)—viz., one each for President, Vice-Presidents, Counsellors, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary—on a single sheet numbered as delivered, according to the order of application; these ballots to be filled out, signed, and returned to the Secretary not later than 9 P.M. The Chair shall then appoint a Counting Committee of three, of whom the Secretary, but no other member of the Board, shall be one; but if objection be made to the committee as thus constituted the objector shall be added, and the counting then proceed in an adjoining room under the following regulations. If the result of the election as reported be challenged, the counting shall be immediately repeated in full meeting, under the special supervision of the objector. In any case, the Chair shall declare the result, which shall be final. The Board thus elected shall meet as provided in § IV.

XV.

Rules for Counting the Votes at the Annual Election.

a. Begin with the ballots cast for President. Distribute them consecutively according to the numbering, putting in the same pile those which have the same first choice. The candidate who is the first choice of a plurality is elected. Pass over his name wherever it occurs on the ballots cast for other officers.

b. Ballots for Vice-Presidents. Divide the total number by 2, to obtain the quota, which will be the quotient, disregarding fractions. Distribute consecutively in piles according to the first choice of each, keeping a tally of each pile. If any candidate obtains the quota by first choice, pass over his name on all subsequent ballots and count them at once for the alternative choice. If the first count gives no result, redistribute the ballots of the candidate who has received least support, according to the second choice in each case; and so on till only two candidates remain, who will be elected even if neither has the quota. The one having most votes will be 1st Vice-President.

c. Ballots for Counsellors. Divide the total number by 6, to obtain the quota. Proceed as in the foregoing election. In redistributing, begin with the scattering votes, and enter upon the tally any new name that may thus emerge as first alternative. After that, the tally will be closed to contestants not already upon it. The rank of the elected Counsellors will be determined by the order in which they obtain the quota. Names of President and Vice-Presidents elect must be passed over.

d. In case of tie, give precedence to the candidate whose name first appeared upon the tally.

e. Ballots for Treasurer and Recording Secretary respectively will be counted in the same manner as for President.

RECORDING SECRETARY.

XVI.

The Recording Secretary shall keep a correct account, in a book to be provided for that purpose, of the proceedings of the Society and of the Board of Officers, and perform such other duties as the Board shall direct.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

XVII.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct all correspondence with other societies, shall be ex officio a member of any lecture committee, and shall edit the Society's publications.

TREASURER.

XVIII.

The Treasurer shall have custody of the money, funds, and securities of the Society, and pay and dispose of the same, in pursuance of the order of the Board of Officers, and render an account thereof to the Board whenever called upon to do so, and regularly at the Annual Meeting of the Society.

XIX.

The Annual Fee shall be payable on the first day of April, or, in the case of new members, as soon as they qualify ; but the fee shall not twice be required in the same calendar year. The Secretary shall erase from the list of members any one reported by the Treasurer as persistently neglecting to pay his dues.

CURATOR.

XX.

The Curator shall have charge of the Library and of the objects of curiosity or of science which may be acquired by the Society, and shall co-operate with the Committee on Rules in framing regulations for his special department.

COMMITTEES.

XXI.

There shall be two Standing Committees of the Board of Officers, each composed of five members, and called, respectively, the Charity Committee and the Committee of Public Welfare. Also, a Committee on Membership, consisting of five members ; a Committee on Rules, consisting of three members ; an Auditing Committee of two, to audit the accounts of the Treasurer ; a Rooms Committee of five ; and a Library Committee of five, of which the Curator shall be one—all appointed annually for the calendar year by the Society on the President's nomination. The Standing Committees, and the Rooms and Library Committees through the Curator, shall report at the Annual Meeting.

XXII.

It shall be the duty of the Charity Committee faithfully to distribute and expend, according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society, all moneys appropriated by the Society or the Board of Officers for charitable purposes and received by the Committee for that object.

XXIII.

It shall be the duty of the Committee of Public Welfare to examine such questions of general public interest as may from time to time arise. If, in their judgment, these questions are of sufficient importance to warrant their presentation to the Society, the Committee shall so submit them, with their opinions or recommendations, for such action as the members may determine. All matters tending to promote the welfare and growth of this community, to ensure good citizenship, and to guard against the encroachments of evil-minded, selfish, or ambitious persons in the government or management of public affairs, shall be considered questions of general public interest.

XXIV.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Membership to receive all nominations for membership, to make due enquiry thereon, and, at the request of the proposers, to present the same to the Society. All nominations shall be posted, directly or through the Recording Secretary, on the Bulletin Board at least one week before the regular meeting of the Society, and shall indicate the name of the candidate, his residence, and the name of his proposer.

XXV.

The Committee on Rules shall report to the Society, for its approval, regulations for the use of the rooms ; and may in the interval between two meetings decide any question that arises and has not been already provided for.

XXVI.

The Rooms Committee shall have exclusive charge of the economy and decoration of the Society's rooms, but shall incur no expenses without the approval of the Society.

XXVII.

The Library Committee shall report the needs of the Reading-Room and the Library, and propose means for their accommodation and maintenance. They shall see that the books and periodicals are carefully treated, the Society's ownership in them plainly marked, and the source from which they are obtained suitably acknowledged.

AMENDMENTS.

XXVIII.

Amendments or alterations of the By-Laws may be made by a two-thirds vote of members present at any regular meeting of the Society, provided notice of the proposed change shall have been given at a regular meeting at least one month previously, and posted in the Society's rooms in the interval.
